

IN HOLIDAY GARB

GLENDAL STORES DECK OUT WINDOWS WITH ATTRACTIVE CHRISTMAS WARES

In common with the whole land which is rejoicing over the Christmas season and specially because the peace which was promised at the first Christmas is reigning in the United States, Glendale is already putting on her beautiful garments, to have the fitting attire for this joyful time of the year. Already the merchants of the city have decked their store windows in appropriate style and are displaying their Christmas wares to great effect.

How much this city advances each year may be measured in the advance which is yearly made in the leading stores. While it may not be true that extraordinary prosperity has waited on the business of the Glendale merchants, yet they are not retrograding by any means. On the contrary, they show a marked advance in the variety and beauty of their Christmas wares and all anticipate a good close of the year. Glendale people are doing their shopping to a greater extent in their own city as the years roll on and it is likely that this year will be a record-breaker in that respect.

Tropico Mercantile Company
Among the specialties which the enterprising Tropico Mercantile Company is offering for Christmas are Christmas trees. These range in price from the cheapest to the most expensive, but the prices are all reasonable for what are offered. Housekeepers are advised that they can get Petaluma eggs for 35 cents a dozen, which is welcome news in this season of pastry and cake. All Christmas fruits, nuts and candies are specially priced and reasonable.

Munson's Drug Store
Munson's drug store has a most attractive window with an exhibit of Tinkertoy building material, consisting of perforated disks and spindles from which ingenious bridges and other pieces of construction work can be created. This is admirable for children. The Tinkertoy material has been worked cleverly into windmills and spindles of various kinds and these driven by an electric fan constitute a great attraction. In another window is a fine display of "Symphony" stationery.

Glendale Book Store
The Glendale Book Store, Broadway, has a very fine selection of art material, Christmas cards, music rolls and satchels, and all the varied output of taste and genius that is manufactured in the art and book lines.

Johnson & Lyons
Johnson & Lyons, 532 W. Broadway, in addition to the usual stores of good things to eat, have a window tastefully laid out with a choice selection of Jevne's fruits—Jevne's California Glace fruits in souvenir boxes, and all manner of stuffed prunes, shelled pecans, cluster raisins, fancy figs and chocolates, dates and oranges.

Glendale Pharmacy
The Glendale Pharmacy has an appropriate and seasonable display of Christmas candies, perfumes, soaps and other drug store articles of attractive appearance and first-class quality, as well as stationery.

McGee's Dry Goods
McGee's Dry Goods store, 580 W. Broadway, has an excellent display of handkerchiefs of all styles, collars of the latest fashions, men's caps, shoes, gymnasium shoes and a dozen other articles appropriate to the season.

Kelly & McElroy
Kelly & McElroy, florists, Brand boulevard, are making a specialty of the beautiful mottled pottery, fashioned at the Zanesville, Ohio, pottery. The beautiful Donatello ware from the same pottery is to be found here also. Ferns of all kinds and bulbs are in evidence.

Glendale Paint & Paper Company
The Glendale Paint & Paper Company, 419 S. Brand, has a very excellent selection of books, including some of the old favorites such as "To Have and to Hold" and "The Green Hand," one of the best sea stories ever written. The stock of stationery, wall paper, ledgers and account books of all kinds, as well as Christmas cards, is very complete. The Rozane art ware is attractive.

Irish Linen Store
One of the most complete displays of new Christmas and other goods is to be found in the Irish Linen Store. There are exhibited tapestries soft to the touch and restful to the eye, and a choice selection of linens for the bungalow. One window has a very complete display of bath towels de luxe handsomely colored and faultlessly woven. The showing in handkerchiefs is one of the most elaborate ever offered the public. ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

POULTRY ASSOCIATION IS IN FLOURISHING CONDITION AND WILL EXTEND ITS SCOPE

Great enthusiasm prevailed at the annual meeting of the Glendale-Tropico Poultry and Pet Stock association, held Thursday evening in the City Hall, at 8 p. m. The meeting was attended by a full representation of the membership. The fact that the recent show held by the association was so great a success seems to have instilled heart and courage into the breeders of the district.

After the regular business had been transacted election of officers followed. With great unanimity the following officials were chosen:

Dr. G. Irwin Royce, Glendale, president.
Dr. A. M. Duncan, Tropico, first vice-president.
Mrs. Kathryn Ross, Glendale, second vice-president.

H. L. Ryerson, Tropico, Secretary.
R. T. Lyon, Glendale, treasurer.
E. E. Emerson, Burbank, H. L. Gill, Tropico, Cromwell Galpin, Eagle Rock, executive committee.

It was agreed that there had never been a more successful poultry show held in Glendale than the recent exhibition. From a financial point of view also it was a success. There are still some bills to come in and the full financial report of the show was laid over till next meeting.

It was agreed that the executive committee and the regular officers of the society should act as a board of directors. It is likely that the association will take in a greater variety of pet stock next year than it was willing to admit this year. The membership charter is still open and all poultrymen are urged to avail themselves of the privilege and help to make this one of the strongest associations in Southern California.

There is every indication that the valley will ultimately assume its rightful position as headquarters for fine poultry of all kinds. The climate, soil and surroundings are all admirably fitted for this business. A very prosperous year is anticipated.

DISTURBANCE OF THE PEACE

Thomas Aiken, who resides at San Fernando and Vine, is a laborer. Thomas, whose life of toil is lightened by few glimpses of the higher education, or the superior morality, has tastes that do not fit in with the general arrangement of civic life in a well-ordered city. When Thomas desires some variation from the dull monotony of his existence he knows no resource save to inflame his brain with some of the marvelous products of chemical ingenuity that masquerade under the name of wine or brandy. Excited by the near approach of Christmas, Thomas began an early celebration which resulted in his committing a breach of the peace, disturbing his neighborhood by snatches of old lays and threats of violence to his neighbors. They promptly had Thomas arrested. As this was by no means his first offense, Judge Whomes, after hearing evidence Friday morning sentenced Aiken to pay a fine of $25 or serve 25 days in jail.

LOST HER SUITCASE

As usual when Christmas time draws near there are an unusual number of petty thefts committed by the company of marauders which inevitably flock to scenes where large crowds congregate. All is fish that comes to the net of these nimble-fingered and light-footed operators. They haunt the stores and rob both the storekeeper and his customers. Others make a specialty of the street cars. An instance of this took place Thursday on the Glendale 2:45 car when Mrs. Talford, 448 Franklin court, was robbed of a suitcase in which she was carrying some of her purchases. She laid the suitcase down at the rear of the car and imagined it would be safe enough there; but somewhere between Los Angeles and Glendale one of the enterprising gentry who "work" the cars at this season stepped off and took the suitcase with him. Unfortunately the theft was not reported to the police until two hours afterward when all traces of the thief had disappeared.

EVENING NEWS FOR CHRISTMAS

It has just been suggested to the management of the Evening News that a year's subscription for the Evening News or the Tri-City Progress (weekly), will make a suitable Christmas present for a relative or a friend. The Evening News and its weekly, The Tri-City Progress are both full of news of the Glendale community, and for a relative or a friend to be presented with a year's subscription for either will be greatly appreciated.

PEACE PARTY LEAVES KIRKWALL

HENRY FORD AND HIS CARGO OF PACIFICISTS ARE ALLOWED TO PROCEED TO NORWAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, Dec. 17.—After giving bond that that part of the peace cargo of the famous ship questioned as contraband would be returned to England, the peace ship with Henry Ford and his pacificists on board was permitted to sail today for Norway. The passengers and Ford himself preserved absolute silence as to the reports of disputes and quarrels on board the ship.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE IN PERSIA

TROOPS OF THE SHAH UNABLE TO RESIST PERSISTENT MUSCOVITE ATTACK AT HAMADAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PETROGRAD, Dec. 17.—After persistent attacks on the Persian forces defending the ancient city of Hamadan, the Russian troops stormed the fortifications and drove the Shah's men out with enormous slaughter. Looting was forbidden by the Russian commander as Hamadan is one of the most ancient cities of Persia and is full of artistic and literary treasures. It was the scene of the teachings of the famous Avicenna, the illustrious Mohammedan philosopher and physician of the tenth century.

AUSTRIA'S REPLY BEING CONSIDERED

VIENNA'S ANSWER TO THE AMERICAN NOTE ARRIVED TODAY AND IS NOW BEFORE CABINET

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Austria's reply to the American note arrived today. It was immediately translated out of code by the experts and was taken up by the cabinet for consideration. It is said to be entirely unsatisfactory and in some points almost insolent and in others flippant and defiant. It is possible that diplomatic relations with Austria will be severed before long.

GERMAN ZEPPELIN IS BLOWN UP

CARGO OF BOMBS EXPLODES AS AIRSHIP PASSES NAMUR—WHOLE CREW WAS KILLED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
AMSTERDAM, Dec. 17.—One of Germany's latest Zeppelins was blown up today. The airship was slowly making its way across the city of Namur in Belgium with a cargo of bombs. What actually happened cannot be determined. The sight of a Zeppelin is so common that not many eyes were directed toward the skies when the explosion occurred. The Zeppelin was conveying a cargo of bombs to a part of the front when it was seen to burst into flames. An explosion was heard and the charred and blackened corpses of the crew fell to the ground in the midst of a heap of twisted iron work.

SIXTEEN PERSONS KILLED IN COLLISION NEAR NEWCASTLE—MANY INJURED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
NEWCASTLE, Dec. 17.—At least 16 persons were killed and a very great number injured in a triple collision near this city today. A freight train, a pilot engine and a passenger train were involved in the wreck.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SALONIKI, Dec. 17.—Bulgarian troops along with Germans and Austrians are massing two miles outside of the Greek border today. They are preparing to make an attack in force on the Allies who are entrenched four miles inside the border. The Allies are still inferior in numbers to their opponents and may have to retire farther toward the seacoast at Saloniki. All Greek troops in the immediate zone of the fighting have been withdrawn. The Allies are busy fortifying their position at Saloniki and both British and French troops are being landed.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHRISTMAS IN GLENDAL

Christmas finds Glendale in a more prosperous condition than it was a year ago. The year has undoubtedly been trying and many people have found it hard to keep things going; but on the whole the city has made some progress and the Christmas season brings with it ample reasons for rejoicing. There has been quite a movement in real estate exchanges of late and most of the real estate men are looking forward hopefully to a revival of their business.

Glendale, too, has a constant influx of visitors, who do something to stimulate trade and always leave a little money in the city. They also carry back with them to their homes pleasing stories of the fine climate of Southern California and of the picturesque setting of Glendale; its salubrious breezes; its balmy mountain atmosphere; its fine water supply and its excellent schools. All these things tend to make the people of the eastern states long to come out here. This longing is intensified when, as at the present moment, blizzards and zero temperature sweep the east. Each year sees an influx of more people. For all these things Glendale at this season should give thanks and rejoice along with the whole land that prosperity reigns throughout the cities and peace within our borders.

FOR SISTER-IN-LAW

Surrounded by a coterie of her most intimate friends, Mrs. Jacob J. Schremp at 1442 West Broadway presided over a delightfully informal afternoon on Wednesday, complimentary to her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. L. Schremp, a recent bride, coming from Rockwell, Iowa, to reside permanently in Glendale.

Mistletoe and holly added the necessary touch of color in the living room, where a bright grate fire burned, and those present spent the hours at conversation and hand work.

Red roses in a crystal retainer were used on the large round table where seats were arranged for the honoree, and Mesdames L. G. Dodge, Alfred A. Dove, Albert C. Read, J. Thompson, Wm. Goodrich, James Gould, H. J. Cornelius, H. G. Blanchard, Elwood Chase, Emma Reagan, Charles Smith, M. J. Miner of Glendale and Mesdames George Ennis and Edwin Mahar of Los Angeles. Mrs. Schremp was assisted during the afternoon by her daughter Miss Esther Schremp, popular in the younger set.

HAS LEARNED SOMETHING

Henry Ford is probably heartily wishing he had never undertaken his Peace mission. As he said himself just before sailing, he "has learned something since he took up this movement." From all accounts he has learned something more since the Peace ship sailed.

TORNADO KILLS FIFTEEN

MERIDIAN, Miss., Dec. 17.—Fifteen people were killed and more than 100 injured today by a tornado which swept the country in this vicinity and destroyed Cullum, a small town, completely.

WEATHER FORECAST—Cloudy tonight; warmer Saturday; rain; northwest to south winds.

FLOWERS FOR THE CITY

GARDEN SOCIETY URGES INSTALLATION OF WINDOW BOXES IN DOWNTOWN STORES

The movement of "Flowers for the City" has become a reality. No more is it an unfulfilled dream cherished by a few so-called dreamers, but a vision actually coming to pass. Judge Miller has joined the Glendale Garden Society, and will devote his splendid enthusiasm to leading the movement of "Flowers for the City." His offer to the merchants of Glendale to make window boxes for their store or office windows at the cost to them of the lumber only, must be designated as patriotic in the truest sense of the word; how many will have the gumption to accept his generous offer?

Judge Miller has already made a window box for the firm of H. L. Miller Co., 409 S. Brand Blvd.; a few days will see the box installed and full of pleasant green plants and ferns. Messrs. Cornwell & Kelly have ordered two boxes for their store front. Who will be the next enterprising merchant to add to the beauty of Glendale city and to reflect credit upon himself?

The Flower Show committees are very busy this week making plans for next April. Already applications from some of the largest florists in the State are pouring in to the secretary of the committee of fifteen, Mr. Peter Oliver, asking for information as to space and terms for professional exhibits. Automobiles have already been promised to aid the busy officials during the Flower Show week. Who will offer prizes for juvenile exhibits? Don't all speak at once.

Mrs. Nanno Woods, President, has just started a curious indoor experiment. She read of it in "Something To Do." The directions are as follows. Take a sweet potato, not too large and not too small; take also a jar or bottle of the right size to hold the potato without its dropping in. Mrs. Woods finds a pint milk bottle will hold a potato nicely. Put a little sand in the bottom of the bottle, and fill the bottle with warm water. Now put the sweet potato in the top of the bottle, so it touches the water, and place the whole in a sunshiny window in a warm room. In a few days, so it is said, you will see tiny green vines covered with green leaves begin to grow out of the sweet potato, and these will grow longer and longer. Other vines will start later, and you will have a very attractive and unique indoor garden.

Mrs. Woods would be interested to know if other adults or children will also start this experiment, and let us all see what happens. She offers a prize of 50 cents for the best sweet potato garden grown according to these directions; the contestants, either grown-ups or children, should phone Glendale 1357, or come in to her office at Headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, and tell her the date they start the experiment, giving their name and address. It won't cost anybody anything to get a sweet potato and a pint milk bottle; so let us see how many people will amuse themselves over this little competition.

The President wishes to again announce the fact that a welcome will be given to all visitors, whether members or not, at headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, every day in the week. The annual membership fee is only 25 cents; every man, woman and child is invited to become a member. Meetings are held the first Thursday of every month, at 8 p. m. Social half-hour begins at 7:30 p. m. The Chamber of Commerce donates its rooms at 1011 W. Broadway for these meetings. Come and get acquainted with a lot of nice people.

JOLLY DANCE

Featuring the "Lucky" dance at the regular Saturday evening dance to be held in the Masonic Hall, should prove a successful drawing card.

Good music has been engaged for the affair and both Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell have arranged other attractions.

FUNERAL OF SAMUEL WEBB

The funeral of the late Samuel Webb will take place from the home of his son, Dr. C. A. Webb, 1450 Lomita avenue, Saturday, Dec. 18, at 2 p. m.

Christmas develops the fact that the war has done some good in stimulating Americans to make dolls for the children. Hitherto Christmas dolls came largely from Germany.

When the local varsity five went up against the stiff Glendale High team, Tuesday, the Burbank boys were defeated, 44-20. Story, Boss and Shelton played forward positions for Burbank; Baragar, center; and Thedaker, Brown and Scholtes, guards.

The Juniors' vaudeville and the coming debate are occupying the minds of the students considerably the past week.

LITTLELANDS

Mrs. P. J. Blake, of Cedar street, is recovering from her recent serious illness.

Miss Julia Culver and her friend, Miss Florence Murphey, are making their home in Littlelands. They occupy the house owned by the elder Mr. Slusher. Miss Culver is a native of New York state.

Mr. Cook and family, who recently occupied the E. Deming Smith property on Pine street, have returned to their home in Illinois.

The members of the Federation listened to two gospel sermons last Sunday. One in the morning by Rev. Mr. Wornum and another in the evening by Rev. Mr. Teel.

Bee Club

As previously announced the Bee club held a session Saturday afternoon of last week. After the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous week, Mrs. Dean introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Charles Metcalf, who seems to have had a great deal of experience in bee culture. The meeting was well attended and every one was thoroughly interested. Mr. Metcalf discussed many points not usually treated of to any extent in the bee books. He has promised to return in the near future and bring some apparatus and give a practical demonstration on the management and arrangement of the hives, so that beginners may really have some understanding in the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barton, who are from Oregon, but are spending the winter in Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Timms of South Dakota, spending the winter at Long Beach, all old friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Hubbard, came to Littlelands in their auto Sunday and visited at the pleasant Hubbard home on Stephens Way.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff of El Centro avenue have as their guests two brothers of Mrs. Woodruff and their families. One brother is from Michigan and the other from North Dakota. Their name is Blanchard.

Mr. C. N. Clark visited in Los Angeles last Sunday, returning to Littlelands on Monday. Dr. Kearney was a business visitor to Los Angeles the first of the week.

Miss Lilly Richardson is spending several weeks at her home on Pine street, enjoying a vacation from her duties as nurse at the county hospital.

Mr. W. H. Wieman, who has been suffering with the la grippe, which threatened to develop into pneumonia, is so far recovered that he expects to fill his appointment as pastor of the Federation in a short time. His many friends in Littlelands and vicinity are very glad to hear of his convalescence.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shumway leave Saturday for their old home in Connecticut, where they will probably remain for two years. Mr. Shumway has been called back to fill his old position, which is a very good one. They own property in Littlelands and expect eventually to make their home here, but the financial proposition is too flattering to be turned down at present.

Town Meeting

It was announced Tuesday evening that nomination of officers would be in order at the next meeting, and election follows in two weeks. Also a report from the historian is expected. The report from the water system was called for and it was stated by Mr. Hartranft that the account was pretty evenly balanced, with a few dollars on the right side of the ledger. At the present time Mr. Hartranft favors forming a water district under the Wright Irrigation Act, which would give the community advantage and power to act which it can not have otherwise, unless it incorporates.

The executive committee presented its report by C. H. Clark, which was duly accepted. This committee has gone as far as it can without some scheme for financial backing, which is now the important problem awaiting solution. To this end a motion was made by Dr. Kearney that a committee be appointed. P. J. Blake talked on the subject and on his motion it was decided to have the moderator, Mr. Ashley, appoint six men and six women to consider and devise some means of establishing a loan system. Mr. Ashley will make the appointment in a few days. It was decided to have a talk on demonstration of olive canning at the next Town meeting, Mrs. Darlington to have charge of the home canning and G. I. Maxwell the commercial aspect, and Mr. Hartranft to furnish the olives for the demonstration. Mr. Hartranft generously offered to share his crop of olives with any who wished to pick on shares. He will also furnish transportation to those wishing to take advantage of this offer. Mr. Hartranft presented several schemes and plans whereby the community may acquire its own full, electric light and water supply. These, however, are only in their incipiency and cannot be elaborated upon at the present time, but several European cities were cited as examples where it is known that by their municipal ownership of forest and other national resources all the taxation and other

Home-Croft Round Table

Mr. Maxwell called attention to the fact that some people have seemed to take umbrage at his attacks on the conditions obtaining in Great Britain. This is not a personal affair of Mr. Maxwell nor his personal opinion alone, to prove which he presented an editorial that appeared some ten years ago upon this very subject in which several English authorities, among them Lord Kitchener and others, were freely quoted. It was stated in this article that because the yeomanry are prevented from tilling the soil and are crowded into the factories in cities and towns, the inefficiency of the working people was so great that 70 per cent of the men applying for service in the Boer war were rejected. England has built up her present industrial system by removing the people from the soil to herd in the cities. These are the statements of Lord Roberts and are just as true today as they were ten years ago. Because of the pride the English take in their mother country some people shut their ears to the truth of her true conditions. If America wishes to stem her downward course she must learn from England's mistake and her people must learn to make their living from the soil and be able to maintain their homes. Money alone cannot make a nation. It takes men as well.

There were some stereopticon views of scenes in Littlelands shown towards the close of the evening.

A discussion on Muddled Acre versus Model Acre was scheduled, but this will probably be given more fully at some future time.

The Round Table subject for the next Home-Croft meeting, which is this Friday evening, will be devoted to bee culture.

MONTROSE

Mr. William Riley of Waltonia avenue has returned from the Westlake hospital in Los Angeles where he has been confined for some time. He is recuperating slowly at his country residence here.

Mrs. Cunningham of Montrose avenue has secured a new chauffeur from Los Angeles.

Waltonia avenue is under improvement at the present time. The city of Glendale's roller is doing the surfacing.

Mrs. Charles Green, wife of the foreman of the Sparr fruit ranch, is recuperating from a week's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Potts of the Montrose grocery were Los Angeles visitors Monday.

Mrs. Edward Morris visited in Los Angeles Monday.

Henry Beckman, manager of the Bentley-Schoeneman lumber yards at Montrose, accompanied by his wife and son, spent the week-end in Long Beach, making the trip by auto.

A. H. Hershey of Montrose avenue has had a $50 chicken house constructed on his place during the past week.

W. A. White of La Canada assisted in the Montrose grocery the first of the week.

Inquiry for Acreage

J. W. M. Burton, who is connected with R. C. Walton in the local realty field, says that inquiry for acreage is noticeable.

During the past week several purchasers have visited Montrose. One Glendale man was so enthused with living up in the hills that he intends buying a small ranch and moving as soon as practicable. Real estate generally is more active according to Mr. Burton, but buyers are the more conservative class. These people usually pay cash and secure small ranches or country home sites.

CONDITION OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Quite a deal of fuss is being made by inepters in congress over the condition of the Panama Canal, which is at present obstructed by slides in the Culebra Cut. Those slides have obstructed navigation to such an extent that the Canal is at present practically useless. This has of course given rise to a great deal of unnecessary talk by politicians who are anxious to make capital out of the state of matters on the Isthmus.

If anyone will take the trouble to consult the reports of Col. Goethals, governor of the Isthmus Zone and superintendent engineer of the construction of the Canal he will learn that the present conditions were forecast by the Canal experts, who said that even after the Canal had been finished it would give a great deal of trouble by reason of slides.

The rainfall in the Zone region is from 12 to 15 feet, not inches, annually. At times the downpour is so enormous that it literally turns to jelly the slimy soils of the region. The digging out of so large a trench as the Canal has caused the earth on the sloping sides of the mountains to slip down. This is particularly noticeable after a very heavy rainfall. This process has been going on ever since the steam shovels began to cut their way into the mud of the Isthmus.

At the same time it must not be forgotten that the whole of the Isthmus region was formerly a swamp, "The Black Swamp," it used to be called. It was unstable and uncertain and of great depth. So in the region of the Culebra cut the bottom of the Canal has been pressed up by the weight of the two sides because it rests on a slimy and almost liquid or at least spongy substratum.

This thrusting up of the bottom of the Canal naturally occasions more dredging and the removal of the material brought down by the slides. This has been going on all the time. About three times as much dirt had to be removed as was taken out of the cut alone. The sides never ceased to slip down and they are continuing the process. The whole rationale of the obstruction of the Canal has been explained over and over again.

It might be thought that, if not the country, then at least congress, might be acquainted with conditions there and that responsible officials would not, for political effect, do anything to reflect on the skilled engineers who brought the Canal to a successful completion and who already in government reports and in public statements have informed the country that what is now occurring on the Isthmus Zone would inevitably occur.

Truly politics makes the most honest man acquainted with strange companions. It is not easy for even the most righteously inclined to resist the pressure of men who assisted to put one into office; but it might have been supposed that as the Panama Canal had hitherto been emancipated, both by Taft and Roosevelt, from the domain and sphere of party politics, that it would be allowed to preserve that immunity. To some politicians, however, such a state of affairs is intolerable. Their hands have been itching to get hold of the Canal for political purposes and that is the explanation of the present commission that is to "examine and report."

PROGRESS OF THE WAR IN EUROPE

There is a lull in operations in Europe just at the present moment. It is undoubtedly the lull before the storm. There is not the slightest hope that the Christmas season will be signalized by any cessation of fighting. The season of peace and good will toward men or rather as it should be translated, "peace among men of good-will," will in all probability be utterly ignored in the trenches. Last year Christmas dinners on the fighting field were accompanied by the shrieking of shells and the rattle of machine guns.

It may be expected that the Teutons, which includes Germans and Austrians alike, and their allies, the Bulgarians and the Turks, will make various attempts, Christmas week, to inflict loss on their opponents. In Serbia and Greece there is likely to be a movement to attack the Franco-British forces at Saloniki.

From all appearance the Central powers are massing forces in Serbia for a dash through Greece to attack the allied forces at Saloniki. It is doubtful how Greece will look on this invasion of her territory by her ancient enemies, Bulgaria and Austria, each of whom is hungrily contemplating the possibility of taking a slice of Greek territory. Up to this point the Bulgarians have refrained from invasion of Greece, held back probably by the Germans, who are negotiating with King Constantine.

Constantine is in a parlous condition. Three-fourths of his people are in favor of the Allies; but he is the husband of the kaiser's sister and has been persuaded to fill up his general staff with German officers. Naturally there is a strong pro-German element both in the court and the army. It is doubtful what the king will do. In either case Greece is likely to be the scene of serious fighting before long.

On the western area of hostilities the Germans are said to be assembling an enormously strong force for an attack on the Allies' entrenchments. It is quite possible that the Christmas season will see the initiation of this assault, which is certain to prove one of the most sanguinary of the war.

Under their new commander, Sir Douglas Haig, who has succeeded Sir John French, as commander-in-chief of the forces in the west, the British are making every preparation to receive this coming assault worthily. The French, too, with their well-known activity, alertness and military genius are not likely to be taken unprepared by this new initiative on the part of the Teutons.

Meanwhile the Russians are carefully and steadily building up their forces in anticipation of an aggressive movement when spring opens. It is also possible that the czar may send a force to deal with the invaders of Serbia, though Roumania must first give consent to the passage of troops. Italy is sending troops to the Serbian scene of operations, and the British are sending a strong South African expedition against the Germans, so that the season of peace and goodwill is very far off indeed.

President Wilson is evidently in earnest in ordering the hunting down of the foreign plotters against American industries, with their dynamite bombs and alarm clocks. If citizens they are undesirable and if not the sooner they follow Dumba the better.

An annual bazaar was given last Thursday by the Ladies' Aid society of the La Canada Congregational church. The basement of the church was beautifully decorated in green pepper boughs and red Christmas bells. The different booths were filled with many beautiful and useful articles, which were soon sold. A supper was served at 6:30 o'clock by some of the young ladies of the valley. After the supper everyone enjoyed a program prepared by Mrs. H. L. Cooper. The Misses Florence Pate, Sadie Gueteres, Margaret White, Inger Nyby and Rona Penfield took part in the program. After a delightful social time everyone departed for their homes.

TROPICO

Quantities of good and warm clothing, canned fruits, jellies, jams and groceries were cheerfully contributed to the philanthropic committee of the Tropico Thursday Club, when an all day meeting of the club was held at G. A. R. Hall Thursday. Members of this society and their friends who are interested in charity assembled early and worked very industriously for the needy until luncheon was announced, when all adjourned to the banquet room, which, like the auditorium, was decorated in red and green suggestive of the approaching Yuletide.

A very interesting program followed the luncheon which was featured by Miss Barton of Los Angeles, who gave a splendid talk on industrial homes for women of the city jail.

The Christmas musical given by that clever artist, Miss Mellicent Virden was especially interesting, and Mrs. Charles Stewart rendered several vocal numbers; her sweet soprano voice and charming personality won continued applause. Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, whose readings are so delightful, gave General Lew Wallace's inspired story of the birth of our Christ. Mrs. Sloan was assisted by Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, as soprano and Miss Virden, accompanist.

Julius Kranz delighted all with his several violin selections, with Miss Virden accompanist, giving as a splendid climax to his part of the musicale one of his own delightful compositions.

The musicale closed by Miss Virden rendering piano selections in her own inimitable and artistic manner, giving as a happy finale, one of Liszt's beautiful compositions.

The day was altogether a most happy one. The charm of the Christmas spirit, through which there permeated the truth that it is more blessed to give than to receive, was the keynote which brought much happiness to all.

Mrs. Barker, president and the directors of the club held an important meeting preceding the usual business meeting. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Charles L. Peckham, Mrs. Edward Henry Weston, Mrs. David Henry Imbler, Mrs. Albert W. Collins, Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock and Miss Cora Hickman.

A huge ivy leaf supporting an artistic arrangement of autumn blossoms centered the pretty table at which Mrs. Charles Wallace Kimberly very graciously presided at her beautiful home on South San Fernando Boulevard, when Mrs. Kimberly entertained the Ivy Leaf Club of Los Angeles. Dainty place cards designed as ivy leaves marked covers for the twelve members of the club.

Mrs. Frank Grosvenor of Glendale was one of the many interested guests of the Tropico Thursday Club, when the club entertained at G. A. R. hall with an all day meeting.

EX-PRIZE FIGHTER IN PULPIT

Contributed

Eddie Young who a few years ago was well known in the sporting world as a very promising featherweight fighter, is now fighting for God and righteousness in the evangelistic ring, and those who have heard him since beginning the Union Young People's meeting in the Congregational church say he still has a punch and is really a heavyweight for God. Last night the evangelist spoke on hell, and he still believes in the old time hell of the Bible, saying that while some people have changed their ideas in this respect the Word of God still stands the same yesterday, today and forever. Mr. Young does not rejoice in the fact that there is a hell, neither does he take delight in speaking about it, but he seems to believe with all his heart that there is a hell to shun and a heaven to gain, and that God sent His Son the Lord Jesus Christ to die on the Cross of Calvary that whosoever would might be saved from their sin and the result of sin which is hell. He said some people don't believe in hell but they won't be there five minutes before their faith will be changed.

Mr. Young is a very forceful and interesting speaker, his experiences in life, to which he often refers in his messages, give him a real grip on the hearts of the people to whom he is speaking, as they feel that he knows from experience the folly of a life lived in the world. He is different from most men who have been saved from some such life in that he knows the Word of God and has it stored up in his heart, and continually lifts up Jesus Christ rather than his past life of sin. He speaks again tonight in the First Congregational church, Third and Central, this will be the last night you will have the opportunity of hearing this consecrated man of God as the meetings there will close this evening.

"OVERLAND"

A Timely and Fitting Suggestion

CHRISTMAS

is only a few days away. Once again the annual eternal question of "WHAT TO GIVE" stares you in the face. You desperately thing of this, that and the other thing, yet you can decide on nothing that will particularly please the whole family.

You do not want to give the average expected gift. On the contrary you are only too anxious to do something entirely out of the ordinary—if you could but think of it.

So here's a thought. Give them a fine, handsome, useful OVERLAND CAR. Present it to yourself on Christmas morning. Don't tell a soul. Just drive up to the house on the quiet; call them all out; point to the dandy new Overland and say, "It's yours." Then watch their loving faces light up with joy and delight. It will without question be the best Christmas, by far, of their entire life.

The OVERLAND MODEL 83 is large enough to seat five people comfortably; powerful enough to take you any place; fitted with every convenience which makes driving, for your wife and daughter, simple and easy. It is handsomely proportioned, gracefully designed and luxuriously upholstered. It is the car of cars. Its cost, value considered, is exceedingly moderate. Orders placed now can be delivered Christmas morning—right in front of your door.

Consider what an endless chain of pleasure an Overland will provide year in and year out—for the whole family.

MODEL 83 costs $750 f. o. b. Toledo. Also, there is the MODEL 75, 5-passenger touring car, $615.

MODEL 84, WILLYS-KNIGHT 5-passenger Touring Car, $1095.

WE DO IT RELUCTANTLY

It is with considerable reluctance the management of the Evening News gives space to the announcement of an Eddie Young, whose main drawing card is that he was a prize fighter. The announcement that Eddie Young, a good loyal citizen will speak is all right, but for societies who are working for the upbuilding of a community to put emphasis on the fact that Eddie Young is an ex-prize fighter, does not seem right to the management of the Evening News.

Name all the good qualifications of a speaker you may choose, but do not make capital out of a man's degraded ways. We do not doubt but that Eddie Young is sincere in his present work, but for the sake of decency and justice to the man who leads a fairly honorable life do not exalt the shortcomings of Al Jennings, Fitzsimmons or Eddie Young for the purpose of drawing a crowd.

REV. H. J. HARTSELL REPLIES TO H. E. COLBY WITH REGARD TO PROPHECIES

In justice to both parties to this discussion we have now printed a preliminary statement and also a reply from each. The following reply by Mr. Hartsell sums up the discussion and no further communications on the subject will be published.—Editor.

Editor of the Glendale Evening News: In the Glendale Evening News of December 4, 1915, Mr. H. E. Colby writes under the caption "Differences in Your View Point" in which he propounds certain questions which may be summed up under the title which I have given to this article. Permit me therefore to reply to these questions.

1. He admits, as I contended in my former article, that the prophecy of Nahum is primarily related to the destruction of Nineveh, and then says "It was a type of destruction of the world at the end of time." By what rule of interpretation does he get this inference? His logic would be just as good if he were to say that the destruction of Pompeii is a type of the destruction at the end of the world; and he could have left the Bible out of the question. If we are to be governed by the related facts; as indicated by what the prophet says, we could get a better inference from Nahum 1:15, which says "Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace!" This is clearly pointing to Christ's First Coming. This overthrow of Nineveh was fulfilled "in the day of his preparation" in connection with his first coming and could in no sense be related to the end of the world.

2. He admits, as I also contended in my former article, that Daniel 12:4 undoubtedly referred to the destruction of Jerusalem. He then asks the one question that discloses his "View-Point"—namely, "Has Christ commenced his reign in this world?" From this we are to infer that he holds to the theory that Christ is coming at his Second Coming to reign in this world. But if that is his contention, then not one single verse of scripture which he gave will prove that point. They all declare Christ's Second Coming. But who is there that believes that Christ will not come a second time? All Protestant churches hold to this doctrine. I believe in it profoundly. I am connected with more than four million people who believe that Christ will come a second time. Everybody is compelled to believe it, who believes God's word. Matt. 16:27 tells us "He shall reward every man according to his works." Nobody believes He will reward us different from our works. Acts 1:9-11 tells us He will come in the same manner as he went away, and I believe He will. But that does not say anything about his reigning here. 2 Tim. 4:8 indicates that Christ shall come as a judge and that Timothy will be rewarded with a crown of righteousness. I believe that also. But that does not say anything about reigning in a kingdom here. Job 19:25-27 indicates that Job shall see Christ, as also Rev. 1:7 says "every eye shall see him" and I believe that. What shall I say more? Do we not all believe that Christ will come a second time? Why of course we do. But this is not the point of contention. Our Mr. Colby would have us believe that at some future time Christ will come to reign here on this earth. Now let us look at that point.

3. Christ's Second Coming.
1. What about the time of His Second Coming?

"But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.—Matt. 24:36."

"Ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.—Matt. 24:42." See also the parables of the Ten Virgins, and of the Talents. Now Mr. Colby has gathered certain information from the Scientific American and has entered the sanctum of a prophet, and makes bold to declare that "These things are positive proof of the end—not of Jerusalem, but of the world at the second coming of Christ." For my part I prefer to stick to the Bible, which plainly states that "Ye know not what hour your Lord doth come."

2. What is the purpose of Christ's Second Coming?
It is to execute judgment upon all (Jude 12:15) and to reward every man according to his works (Matt. 16:27); and to gather together his elect from one end of heaven to the other (Matt. 24:31).

This clearly indicates that he will not come to reign on this earth at his second coming. John tells us of a "new heaven and a new earth," but that could not be this earth. You go to a store and buy a boy a new hat and then say to him this is your old hat and see what he will say to you about your reason. The word tells us that this earth will be destroyed at Christ's second coming.—"But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up."—2 Pet. 3:10. "That will put an end to human history on this earth. There is no truth more clearly taught than this. Why should we seek to mystify it by using typical inferences which if interpreted any other way would contradict our Lord's plain statements?"

3. He will come to deliver up His kingdom to God.

When Christ came to earth nearly two thousand years ago he established a Kingdom. It was inaugurated on the Day of Pentecost. Jesus gave fifty parables concerning His kingdom but not one of them indicates that He was coming back to reign on this earth. John the Baptist in those days came preaching in the wilderness of Judea saying the Kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 3: 1, 2. Jesus said "Repent for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand."—Matt. 4:17. The twelve were sent commissioned to preach saying "the Kingdom of heaven is at hand."—Matt. 10:27. The seventy were to say "The Kingdom of God is come nigh unto you." Luke 10:19. The word used is egezzo which means to be near in time or place. Now if this kingdom was not set up when Christ was here on earth why did they quit preaching "the kingdom of God is at hand" after Pentecost? And why did Mark 9:1 say "There be some standing here which shall not taste of death till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power?" Also Luke 9:27 tells us the same. If these disciples were mistaken then we had better cut that out of our Bible. After Pentecost the disciples claimed to be in the kingdom—"Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear son; in whom we have redemption in his blood, even the forgiveness of sins." This clearly indicates that those whose sins are forgiven are in Christ's Kingdom. Now it is Christ's object at his Second Coming to deliver up this kingdom to God. Clearly it is not to reign here.

To answer Mr. Colby's question is Christ reigning here now? and are God's people now shining? Certainly they are. Was there ever a time when a Christian did not shine? When we say this we must distinguish between real Christians and hypocrites. We have no argument for Judas.

4. His Second Coming will be to raise the dead.

HARTSELL REPLIES

"They that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of God, they that have done good to the resurrection of life and they that have done evil to the resurrection of condemnation." Those Christians who are alive will be caught up with Him in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. We shall be like Him and be with Him. We shall see Him and be seen; we shall know even as we are known.

5. What common sense, practical lessons are in this Second Coming of our Lord? As to this wisdom of man in "wild goose speculation" as to the time of his coming, Christ tells us in his own words "No man knoweth the day, nor the hour," but that it shall be as in the days of Noah before they entered the ark. How was that? Well, Noah was preaching the righteousness of God and the people were disregarding his truth and the rain began to fall and only the righteous were saved. So Christ says be ready, "Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come."

6. Conclusion. Let me say a word to those who have been led astray by millennialism, which teaches that Christ will come again to reign on this earth for a thousand years, that this teaching is antagonistic to all the plain teachings of Jesus Christ in his own utterances. From 150 to 250 A. D. this millennial teaching had a fruitful season, and at the end of a thousand years of the Christian era there was a great revival, and in the year 2100 we would naturally expect another as that will be the seventh thousand since Adam. The tragedies of this teaching are as loathsome to think of as the Children's crusades of another time. Periodically times have been set, by men who played to be wiser than Christ, and all their expectations thus far have failed. If they keep on guessing they may hit the time, but we who read and teach the word should hold to a more sure word of prophecy than the Scientific American. See 2. Pet. 1:20, 21 and 2:1-3 in this connection.

OVERLAND 1916 CARS

WILLIS-OVERLAND ANNOUNCES
NEW 5-PASSENGER TOURING
AUTO FOR $615

A brand new, five-passenger touring car to sell for $615 has just been announced by The Willis-Overland company. Following close in the wake of the season's earlier surprises, this latest achievement of John N. Willis furnishes a fitting climax to the year of 1915.

An electric starting and lighting system and four inch tires, two advantages seldom found in a car of this price, stand out prominently in the specifications of this new Overland. In addition the car is equipped with cantilever rear springs, which are probably the easiest riding springs ever designed.

Model 75, as the new Overland is known, is designed and built to meet the requirements of those who prefer a smaller, lighter and more economical car. Although the wheelbase of 104 inches allows a body providing comfortable seating capacity for five passengers, the car only weighs 2160 pounds. This light weight assures the utmost in economical operation.

This Overland is a real family car, containing many of the advantages and comforts found only in the larger and higher priced cars. With the manufacturing facilities for producing cars in large quantities, The Willis-Overland company is enabled to market a car of this type at a price that would be out of the question for a smaller manufacturer.

The cost of the equipment alone would stagger the average motorist if he had to buy it in the open market. It includes a two-unit, six-volt electric starting and lighting system, with head, tail and dash lamps, and headlight dimmers; ammeter to register the electric current; one-man mohair top and top boot; curtains fastened from the inside; built-in rain-vision, ventilating type windshield; magnetic speedometer, electric horn, combination tail light and license bracket, hinged robe rail, foot rest, tire carriers in rear, extra demountable rim, full set of tools, tire repair kit, jack and pump.

Practically every comfort and convenience demanded by purchasers of high priced cars is found in this popular priced Overland. The 31x4 inch tires are larger than can be found on any car with otherwise similar specifications. The electric starting and lighting system is of the efficient, two unit type and is entirely independent of the ignition.

The cantilever rear springs with which the car is equipped reduce to a minimum the jarring produced by driving over rough or uneven roads. In joining this spring with the axle of the car the connection is made at the rear end of the spring instead of in the middle. When the wheels strike a bump or rut, the reaction is directed backward at a slight angle instead of straight upward against the springs, as is the case with the ordinary types. The effect is the same as that of a glancing blow as compared to a solid shock.

In appearance, Model 75 is as trim looking as any of its higher-priced predecessors. It suggests character and stability in every line. The body is of the latest streamline design with long, sweeping curves that lead in an unbroken line from the radiator to the full coved back. The one-piece cowl and sloping hood add materially to its graceful appearance, while the crowned fenders of heavy sheet steel are an unusual feature on a car of and hinges leave the exterior of the car perfectly smooth.

There are large pockets on the inside of each of the doors, while the roomy seats have high, comfortable backs, with seat cushions built on deep coiled springs. The upholstery throughout is deep, soft and comfortable. The car is finished in solid black with nickel and polished aluminum trimmings.

The motor is a four cylinder long stroke block type. With a bore of 3 1/4 inches and a 5 inch stroke it will easily develop 25 horsepower at normal engine speeds. It is simple but efficient in construction and in operation has been found to be smooth, quiet and economical.

Left hand drive and center control facilitates driving, while the electric control buttons located on the steering column enable the driver to operate his horn, lights and magneto without stooping from his natural position at the wheel. Indicating devices including the speedometer, oil pressure gauge and ammeter, together with the carburetor priming button, are conveniently arranged on the cowl dash instrument board. This board is arranged at an angle that permits of a full, clear view of the instrument dials. A small electric light illuminates the instruments at night.

The built-in, ventilating type windshield is of the most modern design. It can be quickly and easily adjusted to meet all weather conditions. This windshield differs from the type usually found on medium priced cars in that it is jointed at the middle so that it can be folded forward.

The motor is cooled by an efficient thermo-siphon system, no pump being required. The radiator is of the Overland cellular type with vertical circulation. The radiator shell is pressed from a single sheet of steel. The carburetor is of an improved type, with hot air attachment. It is extremely simple in adjustment.

Ignition is by high tension magnetos. No batteries are required. The magneto is entirely independent of the starting and lighting system which permits of the simplest possible wiring.

Constant level splash system provides thorough lubrication under all conditions of usage. The oil is continuously strained. A float gauge on the side of the motor indicates the amount of oil in the crank case.

The transmission is of the selective sliding gear type with three speeds forward and reverse. The gears themselves are nickel steel, double heat treated and of the stub tooth type.

The rear axle is of the floating type, with four bevel differential gears. The front axle is an I-beam section, drop forged in one heat without welding. The steering knuckles are designed to give an unusually short turning radius. The brakes are large and powerful with a braking surface ample for a much heavier car.

Small spring pressed studs placed under the clutch facing permit of an easy and gradual engagement. The clutch and brake pedals can be adjusted to the reach most convenient for the driver. Their large and roughened surfaces insure a firm foothold at all times.

The clutch is of the distinctive Overland aluminum cone type, leather faced.

Many people prefer a car with the advantages of the larger and higher priced cars, but that is smaller, lighter and more economical to run. Model 75 has been designed to meet this demand, which will give it a distinctive market. It will not replace the Model 83—the $150 Overland—which has enjoyed the largest sale of any of the larger four-cylinder cars produced this year.

There will also be a Roadster of this model which will sell for $595. See Meyer the Overland man, Glendale.
